No other document shall ordinarily be accepted as proof of age.

5. Physical Fitness: - A candidate for direct recruitment to the cadre of Veterinary Field Assistant shall be of sound health, both mentally and physically, and free from any organic defect or bodily infirmity likely to interfere with the efficient performance of his/her duties. The selected candidates shall be required to undergo medical examination before appointment to the service.

6. Selection Procedure: - The selection of candidates shall be made by the Central Selection Board on the basis of merit, subject to fulfilment of all prescribed eligibility conditions, availability of sanctioned vacant posts and observance of the applicable reservation policy. Since the candidates covered under this advertisement have already been selected by the Central Selection Board for undergoing the prescribed One Year VFA Training Course and have successfully completed the said training, no fresh written examination shall be conducted.

The candidates shall be assessed on the following basis:

Sl. No.	Particulars	Maximum Marks
1	Marks obtained in HSSLC (Science) Examination	20
2	Marks obtained in the One Year VFA Training Course	40
3	Viva-Voce	40
	Total	100

Method of Assessment –

i. HSSLC (Science) Examination – 20 Marks: Twenty percent (20%) of the percentage of marks obtained by the candidate in the HSSLC (Science) Examination shall be taken into consideration.

ii. One Year VFA Training Course – 40 Marks: Forty percent (40%) of the percentage of marks obtained by the candidate in the prescribed One Year VFA Training Course in Elementary Knowledge of Animal Husbandry & Veterinary Science shall be taken into consideration.

iii. Viva-Voce – 40 Marks: The eligible candidates shall appear before the Central Selection Board/Interview Board for Viva-Voce carrying 40 (forty) marks. The Viva-Voce may assess the candidate's knowledge of basic Animal Husbandry & Veterinary Science, practical understanding acquired during the training course, general awareness, suitability for the post and other matters considered relevant by the Selection Board.
The marks obtained under A, B and C above shall be added together to arrive at the candidate's total score out of 100 marks.

The candidates shall thereafter be placed in order of merit on the basis of the total marks obtained, subject to the applicable reservation policy and availability of vacancies.
In the event of a tie in the total marks, the candidate securing higher marks in the VFA Training Course shall be placed higher in the merit list. If the tie still persists, the candidate securing higher marks in the Viva-Voce shall be placed higher.
The final recommendation of the Central Selection Board shall be subject to verification of original certificates/testimonials, medical fitness, character and antecedent verification wherever applicable, and approval of the competent authority.
Note: Mere completion of the VFA Training Course shall not confer an absolute right to appointment. Appointment shall be made only against available sanctioned vacant posts and subject to fulfilment of all prescribed conditions.
